Why the need for an aviation careers conference ?

- The International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) predicts significant growth in Annual Traffic over the next 12 years - predicted to hover around 4.2%
- The booming UAE and Regional Aviation Industry predicts a huge demand by 2030 for pilots, Air Traffic Controllers, Ground Crew and Support Staff
- Expected retirement of existing pilots and other skilled personnel over the next decade means that Career Planning is a mandatory requirement across the military, civil, commercial and business Aviation Sector
- UAE and Airline Operators continuously place orders for new aircraft resulting in massive demands for skilled personnel
- As a result of the massive growth in the Aviation Sector, deployment of UAE Nationals in key positions as part of career planning is of paramount importance
- The growth rate in the sector also presents opportunities for global players in the Industry to collaborate on exchange programs in Human Capital Development

The Program will examine pertinent areas of Human Capital Needs in the UAE Aviation and Aerospace Industries. Amongst other areas, the Conference will focus on:

- Careers and leadership in the aviation industry
- Women in aviation
- Airspace and airports
- Aviation management
- Aircraft, aircraft ownership and flight operations
- A brighter future: planning to off-set shortages in human capital
- Technical careers in aviation
- Industry update and attracting new talent in the aviation industry
- Open day for schools

Focus areas will be airlines, airports, business aviation, air traffic control, ground handling, cargo, fbo/mro, critical skill sets to meet future challenges.
